

Land Conservancy – Kingston Frontenac Lennox and Addington

Privacy Policy

The Land Conservancy for Kingston, Frontenac, Lennox and Addington is a private non-commercial, non-profit organization dedicated to the preservation and protection of natural spaces in Frontenac and Lennox and Addington counties in Eastern Ontario. The Land Conservancy protects local natural spaces by:

- accepting and protecting donations of land
- acquiring and protecting land through purchase for conservation purposes
- accepting and sustaining land protection agreements (conservation easements)
- providing access to charitable tax benefits, including EcoGift receipts

The privacy of our members is important to us. The Land Conservancy maintains a membership list containing personal information (address, phone number and e-mail address) of all members. This list is available only to board members and will not be sold or exchanged. Every effort will be made to conceal email addresses when communicating with members by email.

We will respect the wishes of landowners and donors and potential landowners and donors, with respect to the information we have about their property, and their intentions. We will maintain the privacy of potential donors. We will not release any personal information without the consent of the landowner or donor.

Information provided to us by other organizations will be treated as confidential, if we are requested to do so.
